Dated this the 22nd day of November 2006

JUDGMENT

Eventhough petitioner secured 278 rank in the entrance examination, petitioner has not secured admission on account of failure to remit the fees. Petitioner has sought for a direction to admit her provisionally in the B.Ed. Course under the 4th respondent College. Government Pleader submitted that further allotments are there for balance students from the merit quota.

2. In the circumstances, second respondent is directed to consider the petitioner again for re-allotment without disturbing those who have been already allotted and grant admission, if any seat is vacant in the 4th respondent College from merit quota. If there is no other claimant with higher rank, then petitioner will be given a seat or otherwise petitioner will be given a seat in any other college based on her choice without affecting admissions already granted.

Writ petition is disposed of as above.
